South Dakota Salvage, Recovered Theft, and Uniform Damage Disclosure Statement

South Dakota Department of Revenue
Division of Motor Vehicles
445 E. Capitol Avenue | Pierre, SD 57501-3185 | 605-773-3541

Instructions

Salvage Title: State law requires that if an insurer, in settlement of a total loss insurance claim, or self-insurer acquires ownership of a vehicle determined a total loss, the insurer shall within 30 days of acquisition of the title, surrender it and apply for a salvage title. If the owner retains possession of the vehicle, the owner shall prior to sale or transfer of the title obtain a salvage title. Failure to do so is a Class 1 misdemeanor. Salvage titles are required on motor vehicles less than 7 years old and vehicles that weigh less than 16,000 GVWR.

Damage Disclosure: State law requires that upon the sale, transfer or trade in of a motor vehicle or large boat, the person who sells, transfers or trades the vehicle or large boat, must provide a completed Damage Disclosure Statement to the person to whom the vehicle or large boat is transferred. If a motor vehicle or large boat, which is titled in another jurisdiction, is to be titled in South Dakota, the person who registers the vehicle or large boat (importer) must also complete a Damage Disclosure Statement. Any person who, when required to do so, fails to complete or falsifies this disclosure is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Disclosure statements are required if the vehicle or large boat that is being transferred is less than 7 years old and the vehicle weighs less than 16,000 GVWR.

Recovered Theft: SD Salvage titled vehicle has been recovered and determined not to be salvage -- must complete damage information.
