South Dakota Department of Revenue offers tax seminars in October

PIERRE, S.D. – The South Dakota Department of Revenue will offer educational seminars in several South Dakota cities throughout the month of October.

Department of Revenue agents will cover topics such as Sales Tax, Use Tax and Contractors' Excise Tax in addition to a new bookkeeping course, through seminars in five South Dakota locations. The seminars, which are open to the public, will take place in Sioux Falls, S.D., Yankton, S.D., Watertown, S.D., Rapid City, S.D. and Chamberlain, S.D.

The basic Sales and Use Tax and Contractors' Excise Tax seminars will cover a variety of topics including how to apply for a license and how to file returns by paper or electronically. The Contractors' Excise Tax seminar held on Oct. 21 will be broadcast over the Internet as a webinar.

A bookkeeping seminar will also be conducted and is designed for those who already have a basic understanding of tax requirements. The bookkeeping seminar will be held in Yankton on Oct., 29.

The Department of Revenue Tax Agents recommend sending specific questions and topics for discussion ahead of seminar dates for in-depth coverage and education.

Attendees are asked to bring a calculator or a phone to the seminar. The educational objective of the seminars is to give attendees a hands-on experience with completing returns, identifying and reporting Use Tax, using EPath, credit payments and record keeping.
